

<http://www.angelreach.com/uncategorized/who-is-archangel-remiel/>

Who is Archangel Remiel?

POSTED ON AUGUST 15, 2013 BY LINDA

If you are feeling down or depressed then you must call on Archangel Remiel for help as he is known as the 'Angel of Hope'.

In the Book of Enoch, he is identified as one of the seven archangels who stands closest to God. He is also said to guide souls into heaven and is one of the angels that God is most likely to send to beings in distress. His name roughly translates as meaning, 'God's mercy' His wonderful caring role is to bring or restore harmony in your life.

When Remiel is near you, you are like to hear the rumble of distant thunder. He is a very powerful angel, so call upon him only if you are serious about making big changes in your life.

You can connect to Remiel in your dreams. Here's how:

Before you go to sleep at night, send your unconscious mind a message asking that you remember your dreams, and then call on Remiel. Pay special attention to whatever dreams you experience and notice what kind of messages that Remiel has sent you. If you don't understand the symbolism in the dream you can ask him for clarification before you go to sleep the next night.

If you are having doubts about your spirituality or are struggling to deepen your spiritual connection, ask Remiel for help. He will enfold you with his golden wings and surround you with intense love and connection. Surrender to his presence and see what kind of magic and miracles begin to happen in your life.

Remiel is a magnificent angel surrounded with a brilliant white light. He has deep brown eyes and golden hair. He will move gracefully through your life, bringing balance, wisdom and joy.